Top Tips

1. Avoid peak times, especially weekends and public holidays, when crowds can make the experience less enjoyable.
2. Check the weather forecast before planning your visit, as the weather can affect the availability of certain activities.
3. Bring sunscreen and a hat, as the sun can be strong in the Auckland region.
4. Wear comfortable shoes when planning outdoor activities, as the terrain can be rugged.
5. Bring a camera to capture the beautiful scenery.
